

Rapture Bio

Rapture consists of two very professional and versatile performers; Ange and Felicity had been performing together for over 5 years in one of Sydney's most prestigious top cover bands wowing audiences all over Sydney clubs & pubs from The Mean Fiddler, to The Bayview Tavern to high profile corporate events. Together they formed "Rapture" a busy working, dynamic & well established duo, who have built themselves a great reputation in clubs, pubs and the corporate scene in and out of Sydney.

Felicity has been performing to live audiences for over 8 years now, for both corporate events and on the club/pub circuit. She is a trained professional- both vocally and in stage performance, who has performed alongside a variety of high profile entertainers throughout her musical career. Felicity delivers high vocal and visual energy on stage, creating the ultimate presence, which will satisfy all tastes!

Ange is a well respected & accomplished musician within the industry. His musical talents and smooth guitar technique reflects this. Teaching guitar for 20 years, he is a very experienced and versatile musician. Ange had also played in the Joe Cocker Tribute Show- 'Cocker Down Under' for over 5 years also. His amazing guitar performance will always keep audiences wanting more.

Rapture uses the highest quality in sound and PA equipment giving your venue or function the best overall audio performance. With an up to date, versatile & endless repertoire, strong vocals and wicked lead guitar, Rapture turns heads wherever they perform. They are a good looking duo, with a tight and energetic performance – reflecting how well they work together and how much they complement each other.
