

THE ARMCHAIR TRAVELLERS

The Armchair Travellers showcases the unique talents of smooth vocalist Kate Hore-Lacy and rhythm guitarist Win Spruance. Put simply, they deliver.

What sets the Armchair Travellers apart is their ability on stage to create an atmosphere that captures and unites the audience as one.

With vast musical experience from a variety of different bands and duos, and with years of playing live across different states, these two musicians now combine to take their audience on a musical journey with a diverse mixture of music, encompassing the current and the classics, the smooth and the soulful, and the energetic and upbeat. As the journey begins, they have the uncanny ability to be able to read their audience, and then choose the songs most appropriate for the occasion.

Kate's background in acting and musical theatre allows her to provide a consistently outstanding vocal and visually compelling and commanding performance.

As you depart on your travels, they'll immediately win you over with their ability to deliver in raw honest acoustic style. As the journey progresses, they'll move up a gear to electric mode bringing in the sounds and songs that will keep you on your feet singing and dancing all night. They'll focus on the current, but won't forget the past, and their variety of songs will suit all occasions.
