

Bollywood movies are characterised by bright colours, exuberant dance routines, and great romance. We pull together all the elements of bustling India to celebrate the gleeful escapist phenomenon of Bollywood!

Entrance

As the Guests arrive they are met with a lively Indian street scene; there are the beggars, chai wallahs, rug salesmen and street vendors all vying for business. Inside the door we see the Bollywood film making set - Enthusiastic Indians in colourful dress, slick shades and big Jewelry.

They are informed that they are to be cast in a fabulous Bollywood Movie and that they must practice their best Indian Accents, Head wiggling and eye-brow fluttering. There are wonderful prizes to be won!

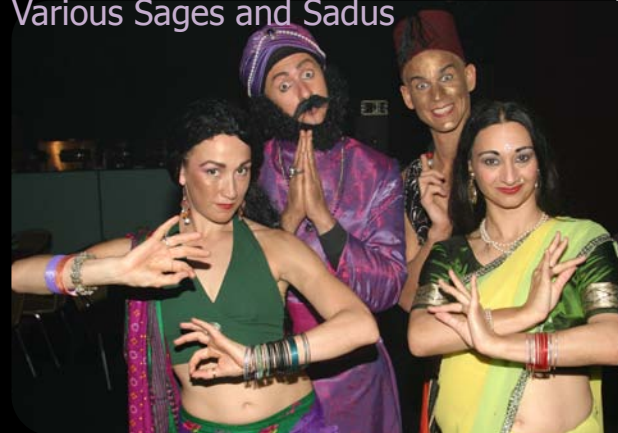

The MC for the night

is the film's director, Mr Rajif Gupta who keeps the show moving with his boundless enthusiasm, constantly relating scenes from his latest movie and searching for stars among the Guests

Meet and Greet Characters

Street Characters
 Stilt walking Girls with drums
 Indian Movie crew (clowns)
Typical Film Characters:
 Handsome Leading Man
 Glamorous Starlet
 Dithering Father of the Bride
 Wicked Mother in Law
 Indian Sisters
 Very fat Betrothed Husband
 Villains and Bad Guys
 Various Sages and Sadus

Welcome/start proceedings

Mr Gupta informs the guests that they are all to enact a scene from his new Movie where the lord Krishna arrives from the heavens and parts the seas. And tonight, the role of Krishna will be played by none other than your beloved CEO, (Who is also the generous financial backer of the film)

There is the noise of loud drumming and cymbals from the back of the room, then enters a dancing parade of all the characters with the company CEO carried in on a sedan Chair.

Installations/Human Statues

- Bed of Nails Act
- Yogis on Plinths
- Jugglers
- Fire Eaters
- Snake lady
- Traditional Indian Dancers

Dance Routines

With great flourish we bring on the leading Man and Lady who perform a smoldering dance number from the film - sexy, flirtatious and high energy.

At a later stage in the evening we get the guests to join in with the inevitable Blockbuster Dance number. The dancers return to teach some classic moves and everyone gets on the floor. Highly interactive and great fun!

He enters amidst a shower of rose petals giving away packets of pappadums jars of Mango pickle and bestowing blessings - before saying the mandatory few words to set the evening in context.

Throughout the evening Mr Gupta makes announcements, runs dance competitions and gives away fabulous prizes.

