

Crash Avenue Bio

Crash Avenue are one of the premier cover bands on the east coast of Australia. The band has quickly gained a reputation with venues and music fans as one of the most energetic and entertaining bands available today. With an extensive range of music and performance experience, Crash Avenue are a perfect choice for your private function or corporate event. The band is able to cater for a wide variety of audience tastes and style of music.

From smooth acoustic dinner music by John Mayer to burning up the dance floor rock cover songs from such artists as Powderfinger, Robbie Williams and U2. Crash Avenue brings a professional entertainment package to all events. The band insures that from the time of booking the band to the last note is played, that all the clients needs and expectations are met to the very best ability and at a high level of service and professionalism.
